

Come and join us . . .

SaMS

saturday music school

SaMS has given me the best introduction to music I could have had

Sam Roberts
SaMS Jazz Bands

is a fun way to make music for all young people at the Ariel Centre on a Saturday morning during term time

- all abilities welcome
- no audition
- individual lessons arranged

... come along and see for yourself !

For more information please see our website www.samstotnes.org.uk

history

SaMS was established in 2000 at KEVICC in Totnes, with funding from Youth Music and King Edward VI Community College (KEVICC) Foundation Governors. The internationally renowned pianist Joanna MacGregor agreed to be our patron.

what does SaMS offer?

SaMS has about 120 students, aged 5-18, attending every Saturday in term time.

Students pay a membership fee of £50 per term, with reductions for early payment. This entitles students to attend up to three group sessions every Saturday.

individual lessons

offered on a weekly basis at the current hourly rate.

- CLARINET
- GUITAR
- FLUTE
- VIOLIN
- PIANO / KEYBOARD
- DRUMS
- PERCUSSION
- SAXAPHONE

contact

King Edward VI Community College, Ashburton Road, Totnes, Devon TQ9 5JX

0797 9911114

e admin@samstotnes.org.uk

jazz . . . wind . . .
choir . . . JaM . . .
percussion . . . folk
. . . junk band . . .
strings . . . guitar